

With the increasing number of people using cellular phones, it makes the most sense to take the issue of cell phone number portability into account. It serves no practical purpose, and in fact is detrimental, to be required to obtain a new cell phone number if a person changes carriers. Please pass a law allowing people the option to keep their existing cellular phone numbers if they so choose; and, at no additional cost.